

Cock-a-doodle-doo!

When the rooster crows in the morning,
all the animals on the farm wake up slowly.

The piglet opens his eyes one by one.

The horse stretches out and the goose flaps
her wings carefully.

Now that the sun is up, and all the animals are well rested, the work on the farm begins. The cows are all ready to be milked, and the chicken has just laid a few eggs.

Look, there's Chick!
Aren't you too small to work?
Not at all, Chick can also help on the farm.
Chick can do something really special.
He makes all the animals feel better with a smile, or a warm hug!
All the animals love when Chick stops by.
