

Little Tractor lives on Big Oak Farm. Lili the trailer is his best friend. He has many animal friends, too: Laura the duck, Leo the pig, Jules the dog, Annette the chicken, Anton the horse . . . And of course, there's also Daddy Tractor. "Little Tractor," Daddy Tractor says one morning, "would you and Lili like to get the hay from the meadow today?"

When they arrive at the meadow, Little Tractor sees something lying on the path near the forest. He drives toward it, slows down, and stops. "Why are we stopping?" asks Lili.

"Look, there's a baby deer on the road!"
"What's a fawn doing here all alone?" asks Leo the pig in surprise.
"Maybe it's sick," says Little Tractor.

Leo carefully lifts the fawn and puts it in Lili's loading platform.
"We have to take him to the farm," says Little Tractor.
