ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The editors acknowledge with gratitude the financial and the administrative support provided by ECTIL, the University of Girona and the University of Wroclaw in hosting EGTL meetings on the topic of prescription.

We thank Intersentia, in particular Ann-Christin Maak-Scherpe and Rebecca Moffat, for their contribution to the quality and coherence of the project and for creative solutions in coping with the diversities and complexities of this project.

Finally, we are most sincerely thankful and indebted to our dear colleagues, the members of EGTL, for many, many hours of inspiring and thought-provoking discussions and for their labour, patience and cooperation in producing the various versions of their reports.
