Twelfth Night

ACT ONE

Orsino, Duke of Illyria, was listening to music. He was thinking about Olivia, the lady he loved. At first, the music seemed beautiful to him, but suddenly he was tired of it.

Orsino's servant, Valentine, had tried to see Lady Olivia. She refused to see him. Her brother was dead, and she had decided to shut herself away for seven years. Every day, she cried for her brother.

Orsino felt hopeful anyway. One day, Olivia might love him even more than she had loved her brother. He would continue to dream of her.
