Week after week I worked.
Every day for 12 hours.
It was hard in that place.
But I held on to my dream.

A DREAM OF AMERICA

The Story of an Immigrant

In the late 1800s and early 1900s, millions of people came to America.

They came from all over the world.

Before they could enter America,
many were taken to Ellis Island in New York Harbor.

Here, their futures were decided.

Some immigrants hoped to make their fortune.

Others simply hoped for a new and better life.

Every person had a different story.
And they all had their own dreams of America....
