ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The European Court of Human Rights delivers a large number of judgments annually, adding to its already extensive case-law. As a result, it may sometimes be difficult for people outside of the Court system to know which cases are the most significant and break new ground for fair trial issues. This book seeks to address this issue by focusing on the most important cases from the Court as concerns Article 6 of the European Convention on Human Rights. The cases are selected, inter alia, following the Court's Jurisconsult's opinion of their jurisprudential interest. In addition, the book includes a number of other cases that either raise issues of general interest, establish new principles, or develop or clarify the Court's existing case-law.

Our aim has been to write a book which is easy to use and which provides a comprehensive and up-to-date documentation of the case-law of the Court on Article 6 matters. We have tried to write the case summaries in such a way that the readers' attention is drawn to the essential points, allowing them to focus on the jurisprudential significance of a particular case. The most relevant legal principle has been explained in the text while the footnotes contain a reference to the Court's judgment or decision and its exact paragraph. We have also tried to use a structure comprising a large number of titles for greater navigational capacity and to provide readers with an extensive index in order to facilitate the navigation of the text, allowing them to quickly locate the relevant case-law for any practical need. We hope and believe that our book constitutes a useful resource for practitioners, academics and students in the field of human rights. The Court's case-law has been analysed up until the end of 2020.

We have worked on this book for several years and are happy to finally see it in printed form. First of all, we would like to thank Ann-Christin Maak-Scherpe and Intersentia for accepting to publish our book and for effectively pursuing this project. During the writing process and especially during production, we have received excellent comments and assistance from Ahmed Hegazi, who has read through our manuscript and proposed several improvements to the text. Our warmest thanks to Ahmed for all his work. We would like to also thank all other persons at Intersentia with whom we have had the pleasure to work with. We are also grateful to Geneviève Woods at the library of the European Court of Human Rights for the excellent service she provided to us under the very exceptional circumstances caused by the pandemic. We would also like to give our warmest thanks to Richard Savage, who conducted the language review of the early version of the book. It was a great pleasure to work with you. Naturally, all mistakes in the book and all interpretations provided by us are purely our own.

This publication is dedicated to our loved ones, our parents and siblings and to Sara, Matu, Isla and Aava.
