

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface..... v

Table of Contentsvii

Deirdre M. Curtin

European Legal Integration: Paradise Lost?..... 1

1. Introduction..... 1

2. The Nature of European (Legal) Integration..... 3

2.1. Introduction..... 3

2.2. (Liberal) Intergovernmentalism..... 5

2.3. Neo-functionalism 6

2.4. Federalism..... 8

3. ‘Law’ and Legislation: the ‘Hard’ Model of European Integration..... 10

3.1. Introduction 10

3.2. Formal Legal Tools 12

3.2.1. Harmonization as Legal Instrument..... 12

3.2.2. Regulatory Pluralism: the Legal Principle of Mutual Recognition 14

3.2.3. Regulatory Rule-Making: Implementation of (Delegated) Legislative Acts 16

4. Coordination, Convergence and ‘Governance’: the ‘Soft’ Model of European Integration..... 20

4.1. Introduction..... 20

4.2. Understanding the Role of Regulatory Coordination/Convergence and ‘Governance’ in the Integration Process..... 23

4.2.1. Introduction 23

4.2.2. Examples of Informal Governance 24

4.2.2.1. Shifts in Instruments of Regulation (Soft Law and Convergence) 24

4.2.2.2. Governance by Networks 27

4.2.2.3. Shifts in Tasking of Formal Institutions 29

5.	Paradise Lost? Reinvigorating a Role for Law and Lawyers?.....	32
5.1.	Paradise Lost?.....	32
5.2.	The Legal Contribution to Framing Accountability Practices and Mechanisms	35
5.2.1.	Mapping the Locus of Legislative and Executive Power.....	35
5.2.2.	Focusing on Mechanisms and Practices of Public Accountability	37
5.2.2.1.	Conceptualizing 'Public Accountability'	37
5.2.2.2.	A Pre-requisite for Accountability: Transparency.....	38
5.2.2.3.	Examples of various Accountability Mechanisms.....	41
5.3.	Concluding Remarks.....	43
	Bibliography	46
 Jan M. Smits
	European Private Law: A Plea for a Spontaneous Legal Order.....	55
1.	Introduction	55
1.1.	Purpose and Outline of this Contribution	55
2.	European Integration in Private Law: an Overview	56
2.1.	Overview	56
2.2.	The Basis: EU-Competences and Private Law	57
2.3.	The Acquis Communautaire	59
2.4.	A Characterisation of the Acquis: Four Harsh Words	61
2.5.	The Political Dimension: Plans for the Future	64
2.6.	Creeping Integration: the Importance of Europeanisation and Globalisation.....	65
2.7.	European Integration, Harmonisation and Unification.....	66
3.	The Need for Harmonisation of Private Law	67
3.1.	Overview.....	67
3.2.	First Motive: the Promotion of the Internal Market	68
3.3.	Second Motive: the Protection of the Weaker Party and a European Civil Code to Protect 'Social Values'	73
3.4.	Third Motive: a European Civil Code to Reinforce the European Identity	74
3.5.	My View on the Need for Harmonisation: a Plea for Free Choice	75
4.	Designing a Future European Private Law: the CFR and Optional Model.....	78
4.1.	Introduction	78
4.2.	The CFR: is it needed to solve the Present Problems with the Acquis?.....	79
4.3.	My Choice: One Systematised Minimum Directive in the Area of Consumer Protection.....	80
4.4.	Praise for the Optional Code	82
4.5.	The Limits of an Optional Code	82
4.6.	The Contents: 'Social Justice'?	83

4.7.	The Contents: Diverse, Highly Informative Legal Systems next to each other.....	86
4.8.	The Applicability and Legitimacy of the Code	87
4.9.	Conclusion: a Multi-Layered European Private Law.....	89
5.	Influence on National Law	89
5.1.	Overview	89
5.2.	Erosion of a Coherent System	90
5.3.	Multilevel Lawmaking: an Everlasting Task.....	92
5.4.	Implementation Strategies: the Dutch Legislator	93
5.5.	Implementation Strategies: Implementation Outside of the Code.....	95
5.6.	My Choice: a Separate Book inside the Civil Code	97
6.	Synopsis.....	98
	Bibliography	99
André Klip
	European Integration and Harmonisation and Criminal Law.....	109
1.	Introduction	109
2.	European Integration and Harmonisation and Criminal Law	111
2.1.	European Integration and Harmonisation	111
2.2.	Enforcement of Community Law through Criminal Law.....	111
2.3.	Union Criminal Law.....	115
2.4.	National Criminal Law.....	119
2.5.	Characterisation and Valuation of the Acquis: Fragmentary and Minimally Effective.....	122
2.5.1.	Methods of Integration and Harmonisation: Form and Means.....	122
2.5.2.	Results of Integration and Harmonisation	128
2.6.	Two Convergent Areas	132
2.7.	Conclusion: going around in Circles, with Hope for the Future	137
3.	Need for Integration and Harmonisation.....	139
4.	Application of Integration and Harmonisation in the National Legal Order.....	141
5.	Author's Proposals	145
6.	Concluding Remarks	149
	Bibliography	151

Joseph A. McCahery

Harmonisation in European Company Law: The Political Economy of Economic Integration.....	155
1. Introduction.....	155
2. European Integration: Harmonisation versus Regulatory Competition	158
2.1. Introduction.....	158
3. Historical Patterns of EU Lawmaking.....	161
3.1. The Pre-EU Era.....	161
3.2. The European ‘Non-Competition’ Strategy.....	163
3.3. First and Second Generation Directives: Attempts at Harmonisation.....	165
3.4. Subsidiarity and Proportionality	169
3.5. Summary Comments.....	170
4. Towards Better Company Law and Corporate Governance?.....	172
4.1. Challenges to EU Company Law Harmonisation Efforts.....	174
4.1.1. Centros and its Progeny	175
4.1.2. Implications of ECJ Case Law for Real Seat Doctrine	176
4.2. Barriers to Charter Competition in the EU	177
4.2.1. Exit Taxes	177
4.2.2. Other Frictions.....	178
5. Company Law Arbitrage and Regulatory Competition	179
5.1. Introduction	179
5.2. The European Company: Challenging the Strategy?.....	179
5.3. Competition among Jurisdictions (Closely-held Companies)	183
5.3.1. Responsive Adjustment	184
5.4. Mid-stream Re-incorporations and the Merger Directive	187
5.5. Summary Comments.....	188
6. New Directions in EU Harmonisation	189
6.1. Choice among a Finite Menu of EU Options.....	189
6.1.1. Opting-out of EU Provisions	190
6.1.2. Opting into EU Law.....	191
7. Conclusion	193
Bibliography	194