PREFACE

There are many people who have helped us in different ways, large and small, in writing this book. Some have sent us material or answered questions, others have commented on parts of the work and others have assisted in practical ways. Some people have done all three. We extend our thanks to all of them. We are very grateful to Nils Jareborg and Per-Ole Träskman for their advice, support and encouragement. Magnus Ulväng has also helped us all in a number of important practical ways. We would also particularly like to thank the following people for commenting upon parts of the manuscript and/or answering questions relating to the practice of international criminal law in Sweden: Thomas Bull, Håkan Friman, Per Hedvall, Katarina Johansson-Welin, Ola Löfgren, Peter Lundkvist, Jonatan Meyer, Lena Moore, Cecilia Riddselius, Nils Rekke, Annette von Sydow, Ulf Wallentheim, Elin Zetterlund and Josef Zila. None of these people is responsible for any errors in the book.

The present book can be seen as a joint project of the authors. However, different authors have had the primary responsibility for different chapters. Iain Cameron has written chapters 1–3 and sections 4.6 and 6.6. He has also edited the other chapters. Malin Thunberg Schunke has been responsible for chapter 4, Karin Påle-Bartes for chapter 5 and Christoffer Wong for chapter 6. Petter Asp has contributed to all the chapters, particularly chapter 4, and exercised a general function of "quality control".

Regarding financial assistance, we are grateful to the Swedish Social Science Research Council (Vetenskapsrådet) which funded part of the research for the book. The Emil Heijnes Foundation generously provided the necessary publication funding. We are very grateful to these institutions.

Lastly, we should say that we have tried to state the law and practice as it is on 1 May 2010. In some cases we have been able to take account of subsequent changes.
