

THE ARROW OF LIFE

Three Rules for Aging Disgracefully	18
What is aging?	22
The Helsinki Businessmen Study. Actions in middle age secure a healthy and happy older age	30
I'll be 90 in 2043	44
Salutogenesis. From H- to H+	52
The performativity of age. (Not) acting one's age in Benidorm Bastards	68

HEALTH & HEALING

Losing touch. An unrecognized consequence of aging	98
The mighty patient. The shape of health to come	110
Volunteering in later life is worth gold	124
The tragedy of the commons in health care. An interview with Ri De Ridder and Mark Elchardus	138
Cognitive rehab. A social perspective in cognitive rehabilitation and support for caregivers	150
Based on health, not age. A roundtable discussion with four icons from the Belgian pharmaceutical industry	164
Improvisation theater for a better care	182

WORKING & LIVING

Finding their place. Positioning the elderly	212
Caring communities. Zooming in on Brussels: from principle to practice	232
Age-friendly environments in Europe	246
Home in a range. An overview of alternative housing solutions	260
Blue Zones. The enigma of extreme longevity	274
Live longer, work longer? The creation of a new paradigm	292
Age is Bliss. Interviewing Frank Van Massenhove	310

FRAMING AGE

Now playing: two friends	336
This chair rocks. How ageism warps our view of long life	340
Blowing it. Edna's law or the importance of protecting whistle-blowers	362
Ageism and youthism Healthcare professionals disregard the consequences	376
Architecture against death. The legacy of Shusaku Arakawa and Madeline Gins	388
One upon a time	398