Daiko, zullen we filmpjes kijken op TikTok?

Neen.
Dat is een tijdverlies.
Daar leer je toch niets van.
Het is bovendien saai.
Ik heb een beter idee.
Laten we koekjes bakken!

Zo gezegd, zo gedaan.
Georges zoekt de vormpjes terwijl Daiko het deeg rolt.
De koekjes gaan in de oven.
Wat ruikt dat lekker!

A photograph of two black dogs, likely Labrador Retrievers, in a kitchen. The dog on the right is sitting on a white countertop, looking towards the dog on the left. The dog on the left is also sitting on the countertop, looking back. In front of them are several golden-brown cookies, some on a black tray and some scattered on the counter. The background shows white kitchen cabinets and a white oven. Two white speech bubbles with black text are overlaid on the image.

Daiko, de koekjes zijn klaar, help je me de koekjes in te pakken?

Natuurlijk Georges.
Je bent mijn beste vriend.
En vrienden helpen elkaar.
Altijd!
