

CONTENTS

Foreword .....	v
1. Introduction: why a book on children's rights and childhood poverty?
Jan VRANKEN, Wouter VANDENHOLE and Katrien De BOYSER .....	1
1. Human rights and socio-economic research on poverty .....	1
2. The EU, childhood poverty and children's rights.....	3
2.1. Attention for childhood poverty... .....	3
2.2. ... and for children's rights .....	4
2.3. 2010: a new momentum for addressing childhood poverty?.....	5
3. The encounter between children's rights and poverty approaches .....	6
4. Overview of chapters.....	9
References .....	14
2. A children's rights perspective on poverty
Wouter VANDENHOLE .....	15
Introduction .....	15
1. Children's rights.....	16
1.1. Children's rights as human rights .....	16
1.2. Images of children and childhood in the CRC .....	19
2. Children's rights and poverty .....	20
2.1. Human rights and poverty – Is poverty a violation of human rights?.....	20
2.1.1. A right to protection against poverty.....	21
2.1.2. Human rights-based approaches to poverty.....	23
2.2. The CRC and the Committee on the Rights of the Child and poverty .....	26
2.3. Are children's rights biased against the poor? .....	28
3. Some tentative conclusions with potential policy relevance.....	29
References .....	30

3. Child poverty, social exclusion and children's rights: a view from the sociology of childhood
Virginia MORROW .....	33
Introduction .....	33
1. The sociology of childhood .....	34
2. Child poverty .....	36
3. The UN CRC and child poverty .....	38
4. Social exclusion and human capabilities approaches: linking to the UN CRC .....	40
5. Social exclusion (and social capital) .....	44
6. Children's participation .....	48
7. Conclusion .....	50
Acknowledgements .....	51
References .....	51
4. Child poverty, children's rights and participation: a perspective from social work
Rudi ROOSE, Griet ROETS, Didier REYNAERT and Maria BOUVERNE-DE BIE .....	57
Introduction .....	57
1. In the name of participation .....	58
2. Participation as an instrument .....	60
3. Participation as a point of departure .....	63
4. Conclusion .....	65
References .....	66
5. Children in public care in England: well-being, poverty and rights
Nina BIEHAL and Gwyther REES .....	71
Introduction .....	71
1. Child well-being .....	72
1.1. The well-being of children in public care .....	74
2. Child poverty and well-being .....	75
2.1. Well-being and poverty for children in public care .....	76
3. The rights of children in and on the edge of public care .....	79
3.1. Children's rights in England .....	79
3.2. English child care policy: balancing the rights of children and parents .....	81
3.3. Protection .....	83
3.4. Non-discrimination .....	84
3.5. Participation in decision-making .....	85

4. Conclusion: well-being, poverty and rights.....	86
References .....	87
6. ‘Poverty, like beauty, lies in the eye of the beholder’?
Jan VRANKEN .....	91
Introduction .....	91
1. What UNICEF says.....	92
2. Different perspectives .....	94
3. Different poverty models in the social sciences .....	95
3.1. Economic welfare: from a one-dimensional to a multidimensional conceptualisation .....	95
3.2. The capabilities approach .....	99
3.3. Poverty as a form of social exclusion.....	100
4. Is there a culture of poverty? .....	102
5. From a static to a dynamic (life course) perspective .....	104
6. The importance of networks .....	106
7. Between the social and the spatial: does social cohesion imply social exclusion? .....	107
8. Is this a relevant framework for understanding child poverty?.....	108
References .....	110
7. Child poverty – What’s in a word?
Keetie ROELEN .....	113
Introduction .....	113
1. The concept of child poverty – theoretical considerations.....	115
1.1. Universal versus context-specific .....	116
1.2. Well-being versus well-becoming .....	117
1.3. Age matters .....	119
2. The concept of child poverty – empirical implications.....	120
2.1. Universal versus context-specific .....	120
2.2. Well-being versus well-becoming .....	122
2.3. Age matters .....	124
3. Conclusion .....	126
References .....	128
8. Escaping poverty with your children: the role of labour market activation, education, and social capital investments
Ingrid SCHOCKAERT and Ides NICASE .....	131
Introduction .....	131
1. Theoretical perspective.....	132

2. Data .....	135
3. Method .....	137
3.1. The model estimation.....	137
3.2. The simulation model.....	138
3.3. Adding children to the picture.....	139
4. Results .....	139
4.1. Poverty outflow, education, social capital and employment .....	139
4.2. The potential impact of policy measures.....	141
5. Discussion.....	141
5.1. Poverty dynamics, education, social capital and employment .....	142
5.2. The impact of general anti-poverty measures on the persistence of child poverty.....	142
6. Conclusion .....	143
Annex 1 .....	144
Annex 2 .....	145
Annex 3 .....	147
References .....	150
 9. Early childhood poverty in the EU: making a case for action
Katrien DE BOYSER .....	153
1. Childhood poverty as a social research and policy concern.....	153
2. Why focus on poverty in the earliest life stage? .....	154
2.1. Is early deprivation too often a missing element in the social mobility debate? .....	154
2.2. Poverty, early life health and health throughout the life-course.....	155
2.3. On early childhood poverty and development: is poverty a brain drain? .....	156
3. Early childhood poverty and deprivation in the European Union .....	157
3.1. Economic deprivation and lack of durables .....	159
3.2. Nutritional deprivation .....	160
3.3. Housing deprivation.....	161
3.4. Multiple deprivation.....	162
4. The European Union and early childhood policies .....	163
5. To conclude: a strong case for action .....	164
References .....	165
 10. A school in the neighbourhood, a neighbourhood in the school
Isabelle PANNECOUCKE .....	169
Introduction .....	169
1. The contextualised school .....	169
1.1. Experiencing school life.....	170

1.2. A meeting place.....	170
1.3. A place to play .....	172
1.4. A place to learn .....	172
2. Choosing a school .....	173
3. Lessons for policy makers .....	178
References .....	180
11. Like a child's game: a policy configuration approach to child poverty
Danielle DIERCKX .....	183
Introduction .....	183
1. The policy configuration approach.....	183
2. Child poverty as a policy theme .....	184
2.1. A bunch of definitions .....	184
2.2. The lie of good intentions .....	185
2.3. Agenda setting.....	186
3. A holistic approach guaranteed by governance structures.....	188
4. Who plays a decisive role? .....	191
4.1. A life experience approach .....	191
4.2. An academic evidence-based approach.....	192
5. Conclusion .....	192
References .....	193
About the authors .....	195