

BENEATH THE SURFACE

THRILLER

PAUL GREAVES

About the Author

Mr Greaves was born on 10th September 1984 in Queens Park Hospital which is now known as The Royal Blackburn Hospital. Paul was born to the parents of Alan and June Greaves; he grew up in the Highercroft area with his siblings. Paul attended Longshaw Infants and Primary Schools and then attended Witton Park and Darwen Vale high schools. When he left school his first job was at Express Gifts in Accrington before joining some of his family working at MNG Household textiles which later became R U Comfy. He has also worked at Rectella LTD, Blackburn Rovers, JJB Soccerdome, and has had numerous caring roles looking after adults and children.

By the author's own admission Paul stupidly got involved with someone who is now his ex-wife at a young age. He went through a tough and rough divorce. Paul has since met his current partner whom he has been in a relationship with since March 2016 and they have 1 child together who is on the Autism spectrum and also has ADHD.

In September 2024 Paul became the football coach for his son's U7's team and have recently qualified for the final of the U7's cup. In Paul's spare time he likes watching football, enjoying family time, travelling, and going to concerts.

With many thanks to