1. Secret Doctrine of High-Degree Freemasons: “Satan is God.” | 22nd AZK, Part 1 by Ivo Sasek

22.11.2025 | www.kla.tv/39516

Since 1982, Ivo Sasek has been active as a full-time international Bible teacher and has held around 2,000 lectures worldwide. Besides that, he conducted a rehabilitation work for drug addicts, mentally ill people and alcohol addicts for many years. In the midst of those difficult circumstances, together with his team, he researched the laws of life in the community that orients itself towards the bigger picture. From the very first hour, Ivo Sasek taught that humanity is an organism whose members are interwoven with each other and every action has an effect on the other members.

After the rehabilitation time, he founded the faith movement OCG – Organic Christ Generation – and made the experiences he gained accessible to many people. It became evident that the principles taught also apply in an international setting with thousands of people at a practical level.

Together with his family, he demonstrated in nine oratories how through your relationship to God and attention to these laws of life in community, you can live in heavenly harmony. With this message, however, he was a thorn in the side for some circles. So, Sasek was defamed, slandered and attacked by mass media right from the start. In over 40 years of serving, he had to undergo thousands of attacks by the media and month-long hacker attacks. Countless players have tried to this day to discredit him and his message.

But he didn't let himself be intimidated and founded, amongst other things, the Anti-Censorship Coalition (AZK)

- the Internet TV station Kla.TV
- as well as the newspaper V&C hand express.

All these initiatives aim at providing people with a counter-voice to the narratives of the media, thus enabling them for responsible own judgments and decisions. At Kla.TV, he published a whole series of documentary films and contributions on current events. They were translated into 45 languages and count almost 50 million views.

Besides, he wrote more than 20 theological books as well as brochures and tracts. As film director and screenwriter, he produced ten feature films amongst which are three epic cinema productions. In his lectures and films, Sasek always points to the main themes in world events.

Elaborate research and well-founded sources are Ivo Sasek's and Kla.TV's trademark. He provides orientation in the often so complex global developments placing them into an understandable context regarding the bigger picture. Many of his prognoses and predictions have since come true. And his events and lectures that he is publishing on Kla.TV are meanwhile regularly followed by an audience of millions.

Today Ivo Sasek will also point to a central theme that has an enormous impact on global developments. He will present findings that have been accumulated by hundreds of voluntary contributors in elaborate investigative researches.

[Ivo Sasek:]

Hello, thank you, thank you! That was the first keyword. Hundreds of people have been working for months. Also from my side thank you so much. This sounds so cheap. Well, I'm going to pay back, I mean show with all my might to give good things back to you. Thanks to all those who are online here with us worldwide today.

We were looking forward to this day so much and hell has been mightily revolting against it. I just have to state this openly at this point. I have never experienced greater headwinds than prior to this 22nd AZK. And I held over 2,000 lectures. It is the 22nd AZK. And there have never before been greater adverse winds we experienced in spirit, soul and body. And this gives us a foretaste that today will be a very special day. Because today we are going to break through like never before, in new dimensions. I am convinced of that. Because these are typical signs. We know them, this is how things go.

And I'd like to thank all the speakers right from the start who are here today, all those who raise their voices today, I confess, you are really the people who are key now in this world. You are the heroes of this time. You lived through these waves. It was the same with each of us. There were winds coming against us from all sides. I won't go deeper into this here. But we withstood these heavy gales and we're all standing here now, and are proud of spending this day together with you.

Before I will start my lecture for today, ... someone is clapping still. Before I will dive into the topic I'm going to talk about today – which is this work of investigation – I'll start a bit piously. Usually I don't do so but today I have to. You know, when you find yourself in the midst of this darkest hour, where you sometimes just don't see any next step, and you have no idea how it should go on. When you are at the point where you are not able to define your own needs anymore because there is so much suddenly at once that you would need. And I was sitting there in the morning, it was still early and then it occurred to me that God came into my mind.

And suddenly I realized: God has needs too. And you know, when God speaks something, you just know this is it. And it took one second and I suddenly knew God has needs too. We have been created in his image, haven't we? By this he shows us that he also has needs. And at this moment I really didn't know what is God's need or desire. Can he have a need, a desire? I pondered upon this question, I was looking for an answer and prayed. And then an answer came from heaven. I really have to place it here at the beginning now. I just wanted to know: What is your need, your desire? What good can we people do to you? What could anyone give you? It is You who have given everything.

And like a revelation it came over me that God said: "Yes, I have a need. I have a sole desire. I want to be able passing on what I am. I want to give myself like a gift. Everything that I am I want to place inside you and make it flow to others through you. It's only when I can give that my need is satisfied."

Wow, wow, wow. This really resurrected me at the moment, you know. And of course if a greedy person listens, at the very first moment this person will say, oh this is nice, isn't it? God loves to give, I love to take.

But out of all things, that's not what we are talking about here. And the reason why I place these words at the beginning is, because you people who are here with us today you are not such people who just come and say: give me, give me, give me! Wow, the AZK always gives, Kla.TV always gives and I always take. You are different. You are people who come to receive in order to share it afterwards. Is that right? [Audience: "Yes!"] Exactly. You know, we are being accused from all sides to be people wanting something for themselves. The complete opposite is the case. I noticed my greatest need that I had in these headwinds surrounding this approaching AZK, it was nothing other than I feared I could not be able to give anymore. And saying this, I'm not just talking of such lectures I'm giving now. I'm speaking of giving my money for investigation and education. Being able to use all my houses and belongings for this purpose. I realized this was my deepest need that I would be able to give. Whenever I give, I am so much in heaven. I am in heaven! As soon as I can no longer give, I'm in hell. And suddenly I realized, yes, this is it. This is it! [Audience applauds] But because God lives inside us, it is just like this: I give everything and I give it all the more, more and more. I want to give more and more. I become happier when I do so, in everything.

But I do not want to give it to the addict. You understand? I do not want to give it to somebody who just takes it in and only comes to take, to receive and does not pass it on. I do not devote my life to such a purpose anymore. I did rehabilitation work for 15 years and had to see this – the big battle we always had: they came to take. And they were healed as soon as they had learned it is more blessed to give than to take.

And therefore I tell you today, I am happy, God is happy, our needs are satisfied today when you are here to receive seed, seed to spread in this world, to multiply this. And you will see if you do so, as often as you give your lives for the community, for this world, there you will be happy! There you will be healed. That's where you are satisfied like children at their mother's breast.

Okay? [Audience: "Yes!"] Good, I needed to share this with you. A somewhat pious start. But you see it's worth listening to my pious thoughts, right? [Audience applauds] Good.

So now today we need to talk about the highest-degree Freemasonry together once more. And maybe you say, we had that already. Wasn't that enough? Isn't that topic outdated by now? And my answer is no, not at all, absolutely not. Because we have to deal with the problem of high-degree freemasonry as long as, I would say the whole world, yes even every child, has understood what is in store for all of us if the following discoveries and connections do not prove to be mere lies.

And therefore I call all citizens of this earth to carefully investigate this from this day. It is necessary to examine if what has come to light, all these clues, pose a real world danger or not.

However, I do not call on anyone to act in blind faith or even obedience or even commit any violent acts. The only thing I am looking for is an awakening of the peoples, an awakening in order to examine and monitor all the circumstantial evidence presented today, because we are presented with a valid initial suspicion and even more than that, it poses a serious concern, you know. In our Kla.TV documentary "Warning Global Danger: High-Degree Freemasonry" [<https://www.kla.tv/24002>], we revealed the extent of the lies contained, for example, in the Masonic claim that "Freemasons do not interfere in politics". In this film we proved that almost all US presidents were high-degree or highest degree Freemasons. And in my speech "World in the Trap of Freemasonry" [<https://www.kla.tv/28338>] I proved that at least 12 world-influencing institutions were founded by Freemasons. Do you remember? The UN, WHO, EU, WEF, BIS, UNESCO, Federal Reserve, NASA and so on. But you know, these people don't just found organizations. No, they then control these entities of course and expand them more and more, like a spider's web. And they do this with the aim of bringing the entire world population under their control.

Before I present you with a whole host of more entities founded by high-level Masons today, I would first like to sensitize all of us to a fundamentally important distinction. We must do this now. And I would like to point out in advance, with all due emphasis, that I am by no means aiming at an overall condemnation with this new research today!

Because the problem with Freemasonry is no different from the problem with any religion or church or nationality or cult, race and so on. Name what you want. Whenever, for example, a Swiss citizen commits a crime, perhaps even a cruel terrorist attack, it must be clear to the whole world, then this is not a crime committed by Switzerland or the Swiss people. Do you understand? And the same applies when Germans, French, British or Americans commit crimes. Such crimes do not give us the right to despise or even curse the entire nation. And even if a Jew, an Arab or a black person commits a crime in any way, even if entire groups of them commit crimes, that does not give us the right to make racist remarks or even take racist action! For example, we should not develop an overall hatred of any ethnic group or anything like that. And the same principle applies of course to all churches, free churches, cults, secret societies, parties and so on.

After all, such organizations are structured like businesses or large corporations. Usually they have pyramidal structures. This means that at the bottom of the pyramid are the contributors, the servants, the ordinary members. But you could also call them "those who pay everything". And above this base-level there are various levels of coaches, overseers and administrators. Above them are the advanced, the specialists and so on. They are placed there. And at the very top of every business, every organization, but also every religion, every party or cult are the actual heads and masterminds of the whole thing.

If serious crimes are committed at the highest levels of management, such as child abuse, drug trafficking, trafficking of women, covert speculation deals, arms trafficking, ritual violence and possibly murder, incitement to terrorism and war, if all this comes to light at some point, we must not allow ourselves to be carried away into making sweeping judgments about all members or collaborators as if they were suddenly all criminals! This is very important to me. I say this emphatically at the outset because today we will see real atrocities. We are truly looking into a pit of atrocities today.

Atrocities at the highest levels of the Masonic secret society and others. But I say it again: this has nothing to do with those dearest people whom I also got to know personally on vacation, or with my grandmother. My grandmother was a devout Catholic. For me, she was the most wonderful woman you could imagine. But this faithful church taxpayer had no idea what was going on in the upper echelons of her religion. So, loving people like her should not be affected by a general judgment. Especially not when there is concrete evidence that e.g. the top-leadership of the Catholic Church, the Vatican, etc. are deeply involved and entrenched in Satanism. Our dearest friends, who at some point came out as members of the lower Masonic degrees have no idea what is going on at the top of high-degree Freemasonry which we are talking about today, by the way, in great detail.

So let us never damage any not-initiated or well-meaning and often extremely selfless helpful people only because their highest ranks have entangled themselves in atrocious deeds. Okay? [Audience: Yes, yes.] Well, after this introduction, which surely was sufficiently long now, let us move on to the substance. As I said, with this speech I am complementing the two documentaries mentioned before about the "World Danger of High-Degree Freemasonry". And because of the abundance of facts, I can really only give you the big titles. If I were to elaborate on every area of Freemasonry's dominion we would still be sitting here tonight, believe me. But as you heard before, everything I disclose in the following can be substantiated with what we consider to be truly solid sources. And we are giving you free access to these sources. It is important that you hear this now. The sources have been compiled, they are available so that everybody can see that we're not spreading some strange fantasies.

As already mentioned, this speech is based on thousands of hours of diligent research by well over 300 KLa.TV contributors of all kinds. If I were to list them all now, it would take another ten minutes. For starters: Let's take another look at why this secret high-level freemasonry was ultimately made out as a world danger. And what is presented today is from the mouths of the founding fathers and all kinds of high-level Freemasons themselves.

You can hear from their own mouths that they deliberately mislead their own people, deliberately lie to them and keep them in the dark about the fact that they have devoted themselves to Satan. The ultimate aim of this is to bring the entire world population under this rule, under service to Satan. I'm just going to say this up front as a big headline and you'll see that I can prove it. We see that lies, deception and misdirection are their constant tools, their constant principle and not just the exception.

Proof of this fact is given right-away by the founder of the Scottish rite of highest degree Freemasonry who wrote the so-called Freemason Bible. This is the 33-degree Freemason Albert Pike, who was promoted to US Brigadier General in 1861 while he was fighting in Mexico. He was promoted by US President Abraham Lincoln, who was a Freemason Master himself.

Specification: Albert Pike was not promoted by Lincoln, but was rehabilitated by Andrew Johnson in 1865. Andrew Johnson, then vice-president, was elected US-president because Lincoln was assassinated shortly after his election. Andrew Johnson was a Freemason as well.
