Longing For Lullabies

Calm Down

Tik tok
The feeling just won't stop
Tik tok
I've had enough

The constant feeling
The feeling of restlessness
It makes me feel
Like a total mess

I just know that
It's only a matter of time
I can exfoliate these feelings
To be finally calm and fine

And this anxiousness
I must battle like a lioness
A daily fight
From dusk till dawn

I just need to remember
That my heart and mind
Are not what I call 'weak'
Only a bit more tender

Time Will Tell

The lines on my face
Tell me to heal my soul
Maybe now is the time
To aim at a greater goal

The last couple of years
I've been walking on broken glass
Now I'm in desperate need
To walk a different path

Taking it day by day
Towards a brighter future
Who knows what it will bring
Only time will tell

My Mercury

We've all been under pressure
The world turns wicked and mad
Remembering us that life is never fair
But hey, who wants to live forever right?

Will there ever be a break thru?
Life leaves us battered and wounded
Trying to fit in, struggling
Don't we all want to break free?

Although I'm going slightly mad
Holding on and keeping up
Your words make sure not to get sad
Living the days of our lives

I've always been a huge fan
You definitely turned me into
A good old-fashioned lover boy
Thank you for this kind of magic

Indian Summer

As the seasons change
The colors of our surrounding
As change the colors
Of my fragile heart

It has been broken
It has been crushed
But this time of the year
It fills with nothing but warmth

A changing setting
Brings my heart at ease
To change my mode
Bringing a little bit more peace

It might be the silence
It might be the sphere
I'm happy to still be here

All The Things

Do you have enough?

Enough reasons to breathe for?

Do you have all the things?

Things in life that you need?

Things from the heart?

Things for the heart?

Things you adore?

Things worth living for?

Think about it...

Us

I'm biting my nails
Biting my tongue
Can't stand the thought
Of you being gone

Let's raise our glass
To celebrate our love
For all we love and all the loss
We both know it's been tough

We're still standing
We're still holding on
We can do this
Although I'm lost and found

I'm stuck in the past
Maybe it wasn't meant to be
It wasn't meant to be
Not you, not me

Gone

So you think you're the target
But a lot of our history
I just cannot forget

There is nothing that we can do
To change what happened
When all I see is you

I'll always have a place for you
I love you so much
My heart is breaking

I'll love you to the day after forever
But all you leave behind
Is a cold emptiness

Little Did I Know

Hey you,

Don't turn your head, embarrassed
Don't roll your eyes like that
You will miss every word
Every word that I've said

But little did I know, that you would care
And miss them for sure, once you're gone

Hey you,

Don't walk away, not so fast
Cherish the moment, for as long as it may last
Try to hold on to this
This fragile thing we have

But little did I know, that you wanted to leave
To leave everything behind, except me except me...

Those Lips Of Yours

I'm as happy as I can be
Cuz we are sharing the same dream
All is good now in our lives
Cuz we run the same fields

And I can still recall our first touch
It was just a gentle embrace
Sharing the same scars
Staring in each other's eyes

Those lips
Those lips of yours
I'll kiss them
Kiss them like never before

So if you ever wondered Where my mind has been
The only thing I've ever wanted
Was kissing, those lips

I need your loving now
I kid you not my love
Although it seems so tough

My Conjuring

I try to conjure
I know what I really want
Painting a picture
Of all the things that have happened

Paranoid delusions surround me
Getting tangled in complexity

Only heavy flowered drapes
Set color to a darkened room
No matter how high the stakes
My conjuring will happen soon

And with a soft kiss on my forehead
I'll travel the paved path ahead
