Love Is A Work Of Art

As I Look To The Sun

Someday I will see
Through the clouds
A better part of me
Longing for you
Beside me baby

Closing a door
Softly behind me
Not knowing for sure
When I'll see you again
Maybe baby
We'll do the best we can

Have you been born yet?
Our lust for life, how insane
The stage has been set
Divine mockery of words
Not all has been said

To speak, think true words
True words of wisdom
As I look to the sun

On And On

It's good to know
There will be no more lying
There'll be no more tears
There'll be no more crying
There'll be no more fears

You make my heart skip a beat
Each time I see you
Feel you on my skin, inside me
There's something going on
My mind is playing with me
On and on, on and on

Elevated from the ground
Taken higher in blue
Suddenly makes sense
Fighting for something true

And I love you
Loving' lovin' loving you
I truly do
Making me complete
Bringing me home

We found our magic
On and on, on and on

Accapella

What more can we ask for?
Just the two of us
We can have a future
Bright and clear
For as far as we know
We'll make it if we try

Watching another great day
As it has just begun
Gently touch the air
Hearing a fresh song
Moving mountains
All by the break of dawn

Love, valor, companion

Deep inside of me there is something
Something screaming to get out

Deep inside of me there is something
So different, different than Anything else around me

Love, valor, companion
Makes you stronger
But is never easy

Night lingers on
Dancing till dawn
With you I just can't go wrong

If the shoe fits
Let me kiss your lips

Start believing in life again
Start loving yourself again

A love to obtain
Life is not a game
Just go your own way

On Wings Of Satin

I don't wanna be alone
Even with good intensions
A thousand obsessions
I knew it all along

We'll never forget the promise
It was all so incredible
Never stepped into darkness
So I stood invincible

Let me fly away on wings of satin
Why don't you stay...stay searching
On wings of satin, wings of satin

I do know why
Just out of sympathy
The woman in me
Why fake flowers never die

How Come?

How come people aren't always true?
How come when you're gone I'm blue?
How come the world keeps turning?
Could it be I'm losing ground
Whenever you're not around

Excuse me for being honest
You acted to be my friend
Deception may be a new trend

How come?
How come?
Could it be that?
No...

You Are

Afraid of getting hurt
Not fragile but sensitive
A kind you've never heard from
Maybe I'm an addict

You are the reason why
My skin glows near you
Never knew we could shine
It's you

We gave each other trust
After a night of lust
We can invent our own dreams
A new life for us begins

All the chaos and disorder
Give me sanctuary, together we're free
There is more to life
We've got the right colors

You are a muse, the best
It's what you suggest
My personal request
My creator of being
Magic starling, you are wisdom

Barefoot Through Life

There's a path that we need to walk
Across the universe in the dark
Like sand through the hourglass
The ticking of the clock

There's no manual for this life
In this ocean we need to dive
A rough road to travel

You better not worry too much
Everything will be alright
The future is an empty field
With a natural flair of dignity

So everything will be alright
If you can only manage to walk
The rough roads ahead
Barefoot through life...

St. Louis

In the heart of everyone
Rests the memory of you
There's your smile, your scent

Smoking your cigarette
Drinking your coffee
Always a pleasure
To have you near me

A thousand smiles for free
A husband, a dad
Everyone's friend
Brave till the bitter end

In the heart of everyone
Rests the memory of you
Your smile, your scent
Always everyone's friend

My sweet St. Louis

If, and if I may tell you so
A best friend to me
Even a simpleton could see
That you are a saint

The Wave Of A Hand

A simple wave of the hand
Could be a happy gesture
Of simply saying 'Hi'

A simple wave of the hand
Could tear your heart apart
For a painful 'Goodbye'

So reach out
Reach out to me
Tell me what you want
What will it be?

Reach out
As far as you can
As a simple wave
Of a gentle hand

Saying 'Hi'
Saying 'Goodbye'

Library Of Life

Inspired by the lines on your face

We're never too old to learn
We'll get the love that we've earned

That gardens may be filled with flowers
From the top of our lungs
Shouting from the highest towers

Candles to burn
We're living the life
The life that we've earned

To forgive, never forget
The life we're living
So far yet

To remember
Remember me
Never forget

Tell Me

My mother told me to be honest and true
She said that's all there is left to do
Sparkles in her eyes, filled with no doubt
She might be wrong or maybe right

My father told me to be strong in life
He said it was my duty to find a wife
Sparkles in his eyes, filled with no doubt
He might be wrong or maybe right

Tell me about love, without regrets
The hurricane inside my troubled head

Tell me about the incantation nights
Let us be strong, together, without fights

Tell me it's true
Tell me it's you

Till the end of time close to you

Wasted Time

A glorious morning, wasn't in the mood
Slowly waking up with the wrong attitude
Sipping some vodka from late last night
My fire's burned out, wasn't feeling right

I'm a free spirit, you should leave me that way
You just can't have it to see me this way
Just got on my own train, stop bothering me
You can't have it all, so stop following me

Can't you see you're not worth a dime?
At the end of the day it just feels like wasted time

You better fuck off now
Got no time to rhyme
Lyrics for us are over now
Don't care what you think
It's a long lost ship
Ready to sink
This so called friendship
Wasn't worth a dime
At the end of the day
It feels like wasted time

Possessive

One more stare and I'll kick you in the face
You think you can have it all
Although it's not yours to take

Don't push it any further
Patience is leaving me

You'll get hurt, you're gonna loose
Picking a fight with me
Was the wrong thing to choose

You'll loose
An irritant itch
Game over bitch

Maybe I'm too possessive
But I claim what's mine
I can be aggressive when it comes
To protect what's dear to me

I can be crazy, a raging fury
Playing with fire will get you burned
It's what you've earned

I'll Tell You Why

Do you want the truth?
Or a sugarcoated version?
Let me tell you like it is
Hold on for the explosion
I'm all jacked up
From too much caffeine
I'll still tell you
Without getting mean...

Do you want the truth?
Or wanna hear a lie?
Listen closely, feel our love
Let me amplify, let me explain
My true feelings for you
My chrysalis heart
Only beats for you

I'll tell you why:
I like the things about you
I do the things I do
You're the love of my life
You make it all right

Because you are you
And all the things you do
Never divided in two
Never learned how to choose

Do you want the truth?
Or pick a fight?
Don't care what I know
It just isn't right
Only in your arms
I feel like home
Many times I've been wrong
Now's the time for holding on

Let me tell you the truth
And nothing but
I keep dreaming without
Sleeping and telling myself
This dream will never end
As long as we believe in us
Believe in you, believe in me

So if I was me
I would stay
With you my love
And...
Over and over again

Surgery

The battle to resurrect
Has pinned me to my bed
Pain inside heart and head
Rather have surgery instead

You've cut me open
Rearranged from inside out

No pills to fix
    what can't be fixed
No therapy for me to help me through this

You've cut me open
Just to let me bleed
No doctors can help me
Through this surgery

Nightflower

For you only bloom at night
To never show your colors
Your true colors
By they get lost in the dark
For those who don't see you

Never fading away
To never be found
Not by daylight
For you keep yourself well hidden
Into your own shell

But you can shine
In your own time
Shine bright by moonlight
Showing every spark
Showing every line

Every perfect curve

All In Time

You've got to look
Where we stand
At this certain point
In the future

Heart to heart, hand in hand together

I'll carry your feelings
And listen to your voice

A smile embraces me, my love
Loving while looking forward

Going strong and see
A unique thing that we're about to build

We're strong for the fight
Placing the pieces of the puzzle
Not to let it pass us by Keep on trying
Not to be lost
Fight till we die

All is good in time
All in time

Dreaming Is No Solution

We've got potential
Searching for perfection
You're my protection
A simple obsession

Empty spaces to fill
Long lost feelings
Kingdom's crashing
Look what you're missing

It's a fucked up feeling
That you aren't seeing
It's absolutely real
Hot sex-appeal
Seeing is believing babe
Although you're receiving
Nothing's happening

Dreaming is good
With high expectations
The night awakens
To not be abandoned

Dreaming is no solution
Keep on dreaming
Dream on

Muse Of Mine

You're as graceful as a swan
Always giving so unselfishly
The many things you have done
I'm richly blessed and thankful

Being with you always feels like coming home

You muse of mine
Locked in my heart
For forever in time
That perfect part

You muse of mine
A person to confide
Heart's a perfect design
Taking it worldwide

You muse of mine

So thoughtful and kind as you
Making all the hurt disappear
For you never had a clue
My feelings for you, so sincere

Remembrance

Tears in my eyes
From a million lies
The day that he left you
Without saying goodbye

Without love, not the less
I tried to do my best
Still tears in my eyes
I'll never say goodbye

Cuz our remembrance
Deep down in our hearts
Our remembrance
It's always you and me
You and me

I'll have no more tears
For no one to see
All the hope and despair
And now you only got me

Tomorrow

We don't know what
Tomorrow will bring
We need to love each other
No matter what Forgiveness could be
The most important thing
No more pain and hate ridge
As simple as that

Tomorrow will be a brand new day
6 shots to throw all troubles away
Only 3 little words remain to say
Tomorrow will be a brand new day
A soft serenade on a rainy day
My heart is yours for always

We'll be damned
For chewing and spitting out
The world as we know it today
We keep on
Holding on to the little things
No more pain and hate ridge
As simple as that

This world is no ordinary place
We should treat it right
With a smile on your face
