

Stone of Soul

Stone of Soul

Firdaus Akel

Schrijver: Firdaus Akel
ISBN: 9789464357349

© Firdaus Akel

People of Kaimon

I am Luna and it's my job to protect my people and this stone from the people of Kaimon. A stone so deep and pure, a stone different than the other stones.

It's not just a stone but when it recognizes evil it becomes red like blood. Only darkness over whiteness.

When it touches a good heart it will be the purest stone of stones.

This is the stone of soul.

My father was a fighter and he protected me and his people with every power he had but Kaimon was the reason of his death and it hurts so bad! I miss him every day he was so pure as the stone of Liseon known as the stone of soul.

He warned us, when the stone will become red with blood there is still evil and Kaimon is still going to hurt others.

It's my turn father and I promise you I will protect my people and the stone of soul.

O' Luna are you still talking to that stone?

"No Kamil it's not just a stone it's our one and only protection we have from our father."

"But I miss him sister, I miss him so much it's the fault of this stone this stone ruined our lives!"

"I miss him more than everything in this entire world my brother but he warned us it's not the stone, it's the darkness inside of the human soul."

"Do you think there's still any kind of evil in Kaimon?" asked her little brother confused and scared.

"I'm not sure if it's evil Kamil, but there is still darkness. I need to talk to everyone in Liseon tonight!"