

Toddler Bible, part 4.

(Jakob & Esau)

In this toddler bible we are going to tell the story of Jacob and Esau. We can find this in the Bible, in Genesis 25 to 33. We want to tell you about Jacob who steals the firstborn blessing from his brother Esau and then flees. And comes back again. May the Lord bless it to your young children's hearts. And you may find the Lord early in your lives. We wish you that!

Isaac the son of Abraham was married to Rebekah, a lovely woman. And they had two sons together, twins. The first was Esau and would receive the blessing and more riches. Such as livestock, money, and land. This was because he was the eldest and would lead the family. Jacob was the second son, and the youngest. He received less than his brother. But Esau was bold and thought more of himself. Jacob was different, he thought of family and also helped God a lot. Esau was a good hunter, and Jacob was a simple man. Who helped a lot around the house and prayed a lot to God.

Genesis 25 verses 20 to 32 & Genesis 26 verses 34 and 35.

One day Esau came back from the hunt, and he was very hungry. And was very tired and said to Jacob, "My brother, give me some red to eat and drink." But he said this in a brutal way.

Jacob looked at him and said, I will give you something to eat if you will give me your firstborn right and blessing. Esau mocked and shouted laughing, you can have him, what good would it be to me if I were to die?

Jacob said, "Swear to me, brother."
And Esau said, I swear to you, you can have it.
Then Jacob gave him food.

Genesis 25 verse 23 & 29 to 34.
