

Hello! I'm Katie. Today, I'm going to school dressed up as a witch. We're celebrating Halloween. There's Kevin. He's wearing a skeleton costume. Boo-oo! We're going to have a scary time together.

In the classroom, there are pumpkins in funny shapes. They have holes carved in them. Two for the eyes and one for the nose. And a big, wide mouth with teeth. Look at that friendly pumpkin! There's a yellow light in it. What a funny smile!
