

The sun is shining.
Lily and Milo want to eat in the garden,
but first, they have to set the table outside.
What do they need?
The checkered tablecloth
or the tablecloth with flowers?
And do they also take cutlery?

Lily and Milo choose
the checkered tablecloth.
The spoons and forks
also go in the wagon.
Can they picnic
outside like this?

No, Lily and Milo need much more.
They see two yellow plates and two blue plates with white dots on them.
Which plates do the friends take?
